6. Observations

The official presence of:

Hon. Lydia Nsekera, Minister of Youth, Sports and Culture – Burundi

Mr. Peter Oloo, Secretary General of CAAF/CECAAF

Mr. Lawrence Kitimbo, CECAAF President

Mrs. Aisha Nyota CECAAF 2nd vice president

Active involvement of trained local referees, contributing to the professionalism of the tournament.

Smooth logistics and coordination facilitated by Bigiland Event Management.

A successful referees' workshop, enhancing officiating standards in the region.

Exceptional support from local fans, creating a vibrant and inclusive atmosphere.

7. Challenges

Zambia's last-minute withdrawal due to logistical complications.

DRC's limited squad size as a result of political instability, affecting performance and match participation.

Health-related withdrawal of DRC in the semi-finals, impacting the competitive flow.

8. A Special Salute to the Ministry of Sports – Burundi

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to the Ministry of Youth, Sports, and Culture of Burundi, under the visionary leadership of Hon. Lydia Nsekera.

Their unwavering commitment, logistical support, and hands-on coordination were vital to the success of this championship.

From securing a world-class venue to ensuring safe and accessible transportation and accommodation for all teams, the Ministry set a high standard in sports event hosting and inclusivity.

Our Gratitude to the CECAAF Executive

We sincerely thank the leadership of CECAAF for their relentless efforts in organizing and overseeing this landmark event:

Mr. Lawrence Kitimbo – CECAAF/FUAFA President

Mr. Peter Oloo – Secretary General of CAAF/CECAAF

Mr. Patrick Ngoga – CECAAF Vice President, NPC Burundi President, FEBUFA President

Mrs. Aisha Nyota CECAAF 2nd vice president.

Your vision, dedication, and teamwork made this tournament a reality.

Special Appreciation to Fondation Ngoga Patrick

Our heartfelt thanks go to Mr. Patrick Ngoga and the Fondation Ngoga Patrick for their leadership in developing amputee football in Burundi and their tireless work behind the scenes. Their advocacy, resources, and deep community involvement were instrumental in executing a successful championship.

Thank You to Isoko Water Company

We gratefully acknowledge Isoko Mineral Water for being the official hydration partner of the event. Their generous support ensured that players, officials, and staff remained refreshed and energized throughout the tournament.

Special Salute and Acknowledgments

appreciation to the Support Team and Burundian Fans

A heartfelt thank you goes out to our dedicated support team and the people of Burundi, who filled the terraces with joy, music, and passion from the very first day to the final whistle.

Your presence brought life to the stadium and energized our athletes in every match.

To every volunteer, organizer, cheerleader, and local supporter — we see you, we thank you, and we celebrate your role in making this tournament an unforgettable success.

Burundi truly showed the world what unity and hospitality look like.

9. Conclusion

The 2025 CECAAF Championship in Bujumbura was a powerful reminder that sport unites us across borders, abilities, and challenges.

It brought together nations, celebrated diversity, and elevated amputee football to new heights in the East and Central African region.

Thanks to the organizers, teams, officials, sponsors, fans, and the host country of Burundi, this event leaves behind a legacy of inspiration and momentum for the future of disability sports.

As we move forward, we carry the energy of this tournament and the hope it represents — that everyone deserves a chance to compete, to be seen, and to win.
